Idaho Reform School.

The trustees of the Idaho Reform school will meet in St. Anthony Wednesday, November 30, to formally accept the new building from the contractor and close up the affairs. The building is now completed and will be ready for occupancy as the furniture arrives.

Prof. and Mrs. Humphries, who have been elected superintendent and matron of the school, are now at St. Anthony getting ready for the opening which, it is hoped, will be some time in December. President Calhoun of the board, said this morning that he could not say how many pupils there would be for the opening, but that there would be letters he had received from letters he had received that it was his impression that there would not be less than 30.—Boise Capital News.

Bridge Foreman Hurt.

Peter Jorgensen was brought here today seriously injured by a fall from a railroad bridge at Chatelet, Idaho. The full extent of his injuries has not been ascertained, but his condition is serious.

While attempting to move some heavy timbers on the bridge he lost his balance and fell to the ground, a distance of more than 20 feet. LIVESTOCK SHOWN

GREATEST EXHIBIT EVER SEEN IN NORTH AMERICA.

Leading Livestock Men of Foreign Lands Are Attracted to Chicago, Coming From Canada, Mexico, South America and Europe—Ten Thousand Blooded Cattle Are in the Exhibit—Draft Horses, Angora Goats and Many Sheep.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 26.—The fifth annual international livestock exposition opened at the stockyards today with thousands of cattle, sheep, swine, goats and thoroughbred horses on exhibition. The show is the greatest ever held in this country, and the prize list the largest on record.

During the coming week the show will be a magnet for not only the nation's foremost stockraisers, but the leading livestock men of foreign lands. Thousands of stockraisers from all sections of the country, from Canada, from Mexico, from South America and Europe are here. The governors of a number of stock-raising states have accepted invitations to be present, and a dozen of the leading agricultural colleges of the country will be strongly represented at the exposition by large bodies of students as well as professors. The judging competitions for the agricultural college students will be, as in former years, a leading feature of the show.

The exhibit of draft horses is one of the most notable features this year. Pure-bred Angora goats and sheep of all known fancy breeds are shown in large numbers. Of the 10,000 cattle shown a large percentage is made up of choice specimens from the four leading breeds, while the others are feeding cattle, mostly from the big ranges of the West and Southwest.

The scientific methods of feeding, all that is new and valuable in the deboning of cattle, the wonderful progress in knowledge pertaining to the general health and comfort of animals of all kinds, methods of breeding, and above all, the care and reclamation of apparently worked-out land—these are only a few of the things that will be demonstrated during the week, for the benefit of the farmer and student of agriculture.
